2024 Promoting School Well-Being Learning Community

The National Center for School Mental Health in collaboration with The Danya Institute is pleased to offer a learning community to support and facilitate knowledge acquisition, skill attainment, and implementation support related to school well-being.

OBJECTIVES

Participants will:

- Learn about best practices to enhance well-being in your school and/or district.
  - Learn how to access and use the Organizational Well-Being Instrument for Schools (OWBI-S)
- Build individual and collective capacity for promoting and supporting sustainable school well-being efforts.
- Learn alongside other school stakeholders and contribute to cross-site sharing of school well-being information and resources.
- Establish and receive feedback on quality improvement goals.

EXPECTED RESPONSIBILITIES

- Participate in monthly 60-minute virtual learning sessions over a 4-month period.
- Set specific school well-being goals.
- Complete Monthly Progress Forms.

Facilitated by Miranda Zahn, PhD
Assistant Professor of Counseling and Psychology in Education, University of South Dakota

Sessions will begin early 2024

To participate, please complete this brief Interest Form by December 15, 2023

For any questions, please contact miranda.r.zahn@usd.edu